

Lawson Y-DNA Project

All lines are documented (more or less) except for the links from Thomas Lawson to his sons, and from John Lawson to his son Mordecai. The connecting links between those in the earliest generations are not known. However, with 25 common Y-DNA markers for each of the earliest ancestors, it is likely that there is a common link within one to three generations.

